

Candidate for Delegate Alicia Kallen Receives Fire Fighters Endorsement

WISE COUNTY, Va.—The Virginia Professional Fire Fighters (VPPF) association has officially endorsed Alicia Kallen, candidate for the office of delegate for District 1, the Commonwealth of Virginia House of Delegates

According to VPPF President Robert Bragg III, Kallen’s “views reflect the issues our members hold dear, and are important in keeping the citizens of the Commonwealth safe.”

The VPPF is an association of local unions of the International Association of Fire Fighters (IAFF), representing career professional firefighters and paramedics in the Commonwealth of Virginia.

VPPF members provide fire protection and emergency medical services to 70% of Virginia’s population. Members provide these and other specialized services at all of Virginia’s major airports and several military installations. VPPF members are firefighters, fire officers, fire inspectors, fire investigators, hazardous materials specialists, emergency medical technicians, paramedics, training instructors, water rescue specialists, and 911 dispatchers.

Kallen announced her candidacy in June. The Big Stone Gap native is running on the Democratic ticket as A New Voice for Southwest Virginia.
